- A method of advertising other than that determined by The City of Tshwane has a better chance of reaching the public; or

- the nature of the non-compliance is insignificant enough not to prejudice anybody.

4.3 Reckoning of numbers of days in accordance with Part I, Paragraph 4 of the Interpretation Act 33 of 1957

When any particular number of days is prescribed for the doing of any act, or for any other purpose, the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the first and inclusively of the last day, unless the last day happens to fall on a Sunday or on any Public Holiday, in which case the time shall be reckoned exclusively of the first day and exclusively also of every such Sunday or Public Holiday.

5. Objections

5.1 Any person who wishes to object to or make representations in respect of the application must submit his or her objection or representation in writing to The City of Tshwane, together with the reasons for objecting or making representations, within the period referred to in Paragraph 4.1.2(e) of this manual.

5.2 If any objections are received, the rights obtained by virtue of the consent may not be exercised within a period of 28 days after the applicant and any objector or have been notified or, if an appeal has been lodged, before the appeal has been finalised (in terms of Section 139 of the Town-planning and Townships Ordinance, 1986).

6. Important aspects relating to the application

6.1 Applications will not be accepted for consideration if they are not prepared in accordance with Paragraph 2 of this document. Incomplete applications are legally not acceptable and will unfortunately have to be returned to the applicant.

6.2 Location, appearance, height and layout of the proposed second dwelling-house

The location and appearance, height and layout must be such that -

- All neighbouring dwelling-houses are taken into consideration; and

- there is minimal disturbance for and a minimal negative impact on those houses.
The term “dwelling house” or “second dwelling-house” is used alternatively, depending on the circumstances; in other words whether the development comprises two new dwelling houses or the building of a second dwelling-house on an erf where one dwelling house already exists.

Erf sizes are not a qualifying factor for the approval or the right to construct a second dwelling-house; however, it should be kept in mind that the standard conditions applicable to Residential 1 erven smaller than 500m² differ in certain respects from that of larger erven.

The size of the second dwelling-house is not restricted, if the permissible requirements in respect of area, height and coverage are complied with.

SERVICES:

Second electrical- and water connections are provided on a cost basis.

No additional sewerage connection point will be provided and both dwelling-houses must therefore make use of the same point, unless a second point can be provided on an existing sewer line and the applicant will be liable for all costs with regard to the incision of the second point.

Additional basic levies for water and sewerage services will be imposed on the second dwelling-house by the Department: Public Works and Infrastructure from the date of the final inspection.

NB! CENTURION AREA

Before you apply or draw up expensive building plans, please bear in mind the following:-

- The application must first be discussed with the Geology Office of the Section: Division Roads and Storm water Infrastructure Planning and Management.

- In some townships second dwellings will not be allowed because of difficulties regarding the provision of services. (portions of Pierre van Ryneveld, ClubviewX63, Zwartkop X4,5 and 8 and all other townships proclaimed after August 1996). Some services may be supplied at additional cost, while other services may not be supplied at all. This implies that second dwellings will not be allowed.

- Geological investigations are required in some townships, especially older townships as well as farm land and holdings which can further influence the costs.

If you have any doubts with regard to the above-mentioned, please contact the City Planning and Development Division or the Service Department involved.
